

MRS. FRANK NOBLE

Cupid Wins Again.

News comes to us at this time of the recent conquest by Don Cupid of one of our former Flagstaff boys, James A. Lampport, Jr., who was united in marriage to Hallie D. Fitzhugh, of 546 Locust avenue, Long Beach, Calif., December 30, 1919.

The bride is a capable young woman who is well known in her home city as an efficient teacher of domestic science and art. The happy young couple will make their home at present at Seligman, Arizona, where the groom, an able and dependable electrician, is in the employ of the Santa Fe.

Jimmie Lampport is well known in Flagstaff and has hosts of friends and old schoolmates here who join in wishing him and his bride the fullest joy of the life that is before them. We trust that they will not forget old friends here, but will call on them in the near future.

Centenary Division Entertained.

The unit division of the Centenary work of which Miss Vandevort is president, was delightfully entertained at the Gunter home on Tuesday evening of last week. About thirty guests were present to enjoy the evening. After a short business meeting of the society the entertainment began. Music, games and contests were the features of the evening. A Shakespeare and Bible contest won special favor in the list. Good eats were also a special feature. Miss Vandevort is much encouraged over the outlook of unit work in her division and hopes to accomplish much through the efforts of the individual members.

Civics Department.

Mrs. C. A. Keller entertained the members of the civics section last Saturday afternoon. The subject, most pertinent now, even more so perhaps than during the war, "Women as Industrial Factors," was ably discussed by the members, led by Mrs. E. C. Mills. This bears on the general club topic for tomorrow.

Dr. and Mrs. Dumas Return to Flagstaff.

We gladly welcome back to Flagstaff our very popular young married couple, Dr. and Mrs. Dumas. Cards were received by friends this week announcing their marriage on the eleventh of last month, since which time they have been sojourning in balmy California.

Belgian Infants' Needs.

Since the war, what little country stands out foremost in our minds? That little nation which heroically bore the burden of the war until we were ready. Belgium gave her all and in this giving sacrificed much, but through it all she put thought, devotion and energy in caring for the indigent and orphaned children of her country, realizing the future of the land depended upon the young. Now peace is restored but the institutions existing in 1914 for the nourishment and protection of infants have been rendered practically helpless when the German invasion put a sudden stop to public and private contributions.

The problem of saving the children is grave and energetic measures must be taken if these little ones are to be saved from the diseases, especially tuberculosis, which menace them. Everyone knows what ravages tuberculosis made during the war, so it is not only the question of stopping this enemy but of re-gaining lost ground.

America is in the best position to help these 300,000 children in that country that need treatment and care. The Countess D'Ursel, a member of the Belgian relief committee, has come to this country to thank generous America for the help she has so eagerly given and to say if it can be continued this year, the hope of the future is secure. An American girl, Kate T. Robertson, working in Belgium last summer, has authority to speak in Belgium's behalf. She will speak to Flagstaff's generous citizens at the court house, Thursday night, January 15th, at 7:30.

Let us hear and think on Belgium's children's needs.

Double Birthday Surprise Party.

Wm. Rindfleisch, of the Odd barber shop, had a birthday Tuesday and O. B. Raudebaugh, owner of the shop, had one yesterday. So Mrs. Rindfleisch and her daughter, Miss Ruth, decided it was a good time to give the husband and father a surprise party and make it a joint celebration of the two birthdays. The party was on Tuesday night, at the Rindfleisch home, 24 Grand Canyon avenue. The evening was spent with music and dancing, followed by a bountiful supper. Those present besides the two guests of honor and their families were: Mr. and Mrs. Morden Wilson and daughter, Mrs. P. J. Raudebaugh, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Tillman and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dougherty, Mrs. H. Fish, Mrs. T. A. Moon, Mrs. Young, Miss Jennie Whipple and Miss Cleo Whipple.

Federated Church.

A seeker after truth—a seeker after riches—a seeker after health—are we any of these? Or if any one of these, are we a good seeker?

Mediocre talent is plentiful, but we wish to stand out, head and shoulders above the ordinary mortal. Isn't that our ambition? Are we going Sunday morning to the Federated church and hear about "A Good Seeker?"

Sunday night we are to have "A Startling Announcement"—I wonder if it is for you? Each day we pick up some reading matter and there is brought home to us some striking passage that seems written for us alone. Do we read our Bible with the same self examination?

Informal Luncheon at Pollock Home.

A dainty informal luncheon at the Pollock home was one of the enjoyable affairs of last Wednesday.

Covers were laid for eight and pretty favors graced each.

The afternoon was spent pleasantly in conversation, while the following guests sewed busily away: Mrs. L. W. Stevenson and guest Miss Beam of Jerome, Mrs. Becker, Mrs. Stewart Campbell, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. Francis Crable, Mrs. Harry Embach and the hostess.

Enjoyable Party at Normal School.

A very pleasant New Year party was given by some of the girls of N. A. N. S. who remained here during the holiday season. The evening was spent in dancing, Elmer Jackson and Harry Bowen furnishing the music. Those present were: Misses Loretta Bondesson, Esther Carr, Lucia Page, Beulah Porter, Blanche Payne, Esther Bomgardner, and Mrs. Ethel Saunders Messers. Harry Stephens, Fred Metz, Chester and Merrill Mills, Ernest Hogan, Augustus O'Connor, Walter Fleck and Uel Bobbitt.

Junior High School Entertainment.

One jolly holiday event enjoyed by the entire membership of the junior high school was that of last Wednesday evening when the Misses Edna and Helen Beck entertained their friends at a delightful little party. Miss Louise Fowler and Miss Rose Mary Reinhold were among the invited guests to see that no one missed having a royal good time. Light refreshments were daintily served and the entire affair was one long to be remembered.

Have You a Community Nurse?

How many times have we seen this question?

Will you follow carefully these five statements given below:

One in every five babies dies before its first birthday.

Contagious diseases kill 300,000 children every year.

One in every ten men and women dies of tuberculosis in the prime of life.

Countless numbers of men, women and children are hampered and distressed by ill health.

More women die in childbirth than of any disease except tuberculosis.

We know good health and long life are the inherent rights of everyone, but these rights are not to be obtained for the asking.

If you wish to preserve your health and that of your children you should see to it that your community is protected by the agents of modern health practices.

Modern—Yes it applies here as in business. No one who wants to succeed is content with old ways, worn-out, handed-down methods. If this applies in business, why not protect your health in the same way?

The community nurse cares for the sick, protects the well and teaches the principles of good health to all.

The big cities have long recognized the best dollar any community can spend is the dollar it invests in conservation of community life and health.

Flagstaff will have a community nurse.

So say the social service workers. Have you ever seen the women of Flagstaff go after a community benefit?

Just look back a few years and see if there are not some outstanding features due to women's efforts. Here is one that affects the community vitally. Had such inspection taken place twenty years ago—one-third of our young men would not have been rejected for military service on account of physical defects, many of which could have been prevented in childhood.

Watch the Social Service circle!

REV. JACOB M. WHITE DEAD

Word has just recently been received in Flagstaff of the sad and sudden death of The Reverend Jacob Morton White, rector of St. John's church (Episcopal) at Bisbee, in this state. This will be unhappy news to many persons in Flagstaff, for Rev. Mr. White had many friends here, and had often preached in the church of the Epiphany. For six years Mr. White was rector of St. Paul's church at Winslow, leaving there to go to Bisbee in January, 1918.

It is learned that Mr. White died last Sunday, January 4th, from pneumonia, having contracted a bad cold on Christmas Day, which quickly developed into the more dangerous illness. His body has been removed to Virginia for interment there at his old home.

AT THE HOTELS

Among those recently registered at the Pine were John Hall, of Grand Canyon; J. B. Frey, of Tuba City; V. M. Lewellyn, recently returned from overseas, where he was with the engineers corps, and who has gone to work for the A. L. & T. Co.; O. C. Kirby and C. C. Marion, of Parks.

A. G. Sianz, John J. Schwarz and Walter Runke, all of Tuba City, were at the Commercial this week.

Among those at the Weatherford were: S. W. Johnson, Oatman; Al Sims, Lake Mary; W. P. Phifer, Doney Park; Geo. T. Atterbury, Hibbard; Alzada Whipple, Showlow; E. Mahan, Phoenix; V. H. Driner, Winslow; Ronald Weddle, Skull Valley; Thurl Keith, Winslow; J. I. VanDeren, Camp Verde.

GREENLAWS AT CLARKDALE

Mrs. Greenlaw and daughter have moved to Clarkdale from Jerome and intend to remain indefinitely as Mrs. Greenlaw's two sons are employed here, one as brakeman on the train between Clarkdale and Cedar Glade, and the other on the V. T. & S.—Jerome News.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Little Sarah Brown, on her way to school, fell into a pool of water, with the result that she had to turn homewards again, all dripping wet. The next day her mother sent the following note to the teacher:

"Please excuse Sarah, as she fell in the mud. By doing same you will greatly oblige."

KANSAS CITY WEEKLY STOCK MARKET REPORT

Kansas City Stock Yards, January 5, 1920.

Sheep prices today were the highest of the season. Hogs sold above $15.00 for the first time since early November. Pea fed lambs brought $18.25, or more than $3.00 higher than a year ago, and hog prices were 25 to 40 cents higher than the close of last week. Cattle receipts were liberal and the market weak.

Today's Receipts.

Today's receipts were 20,000 cattle, 15,000 hogs and 7,000 sheep, compared with 17,000 cattle, 14,000 hogs and 7,000 sheep a week ago, and 21,800 cattle, 24,300 hogs, and 6,360 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle Slow.

Trade in fat cattle today opened slowly and prices were weak. Liberal receipts at all the markets, together with slow demand reported for beef in the east caused the weakness. The run was fairly well distributed between killing and stock and feeding grades. The bulk of the killing cattle were short fed steers and cows, mostly from Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri. Steers sold at $10.00 to $14.25, with no full fed steers available. Cows brought $5.50 to $6.00, for "canners" $6.25 to $7.25 for cutters, $7.50 to $10 for butcher grades, and $10.25 to $12 for choice to prime kinds. Veal calves were steady at $8.50 to $16.

Stockers and Feeders Receipts Large.

Receipts of thin cattle were the largest for some time past, and trade was fairly active at steady prices. A good many country buyers were here. Good heavy feeders sold readily though extreme heavy weights were in less urgent demand. Several consignments of Colorado and New Mexico range stockers brought $8.50 to $10.25. Stock cows and heifers, and calves sold slowly.

Urgent Demand for Hogs.

Urgent demand caused another advance in hog prices today, and the top quotation was up to $15.10 for the first time in some weeks past. Compared with Saturday, the market was up 25 to 40 cents, and 80 to 90 cents higher than a week ago. The bulk of hogs sold at $14.60 to $15.00. Receipts here remained moderate, but were liberal eastward. The recent upturn in prices is attributed to the belief that the heaviest winter's runs have already reached markets. Stock hogs and pigs sold readily.

Sheep and Lamb Receipts Liberal.

Though sheep receipts were fairly liberal for the season of the year demand is large, and prices continued to advance. Compared with last week the market was 25 to 50 cents higher, and the highest since last spring. Pea fed lambs from Colorado sold up to $18.25. Yearlings are quoted at $14.00 to $15.00, ewes $10.25 to $11.00, and feeding lambs $14.50 to $15.00.

Horses and Mules.

The week's trade in the horse division opened with liberal receipts and a large number of buyers at the auction. Prices were firm. Demand for mules was large also. The large volume of business anticipated this month is showing up.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

The following letter is self-explanatory:

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 31, 1919. Mr. Z. A. Bissnette, Flagstaff, Arizona.

Dear Sir:—Referring further to the contract covering the sale of Overland cars which we signed with you. On submitting this contract to our division manager at San Francisco, we have been instructed by him, in the name of the Willys-Overland company, to continue our contract with the former dealer for the time being. Their stand in this matter is taken on account of the fact that this dealer has spent considerable money advertising the Overland "4" and on account of their inability to deliver cars, has been unable to make any profit off of the same.

We are very sorry that we will have to cancel our arrangements with you, but under the circumstances we have no other alternative. We are herewith returning to you our check covering the deposit which you placed with us.

Yours very truly, OVERLAND ARIZONA COMPANY, H. H. Hotchkiss, President and General Manager.
